

Friends of the ARTS Business Membership Program

Your company's commitment to enhancing our community's quality of life is easily demonstrated by becoming a proud Member to Friends of the Hendersonville Arts Council (501c3). By becoming a Corporate Member, your current and future employees will enjoy access to the arts, culture, and heritage of Middle Tennessee.

Corporate contributions are critical for us to conduct educational offerings, produce world-class concerts, exhibitions, and public programs. In return for your generous support, enjoy the many advantages that accompany a Corporate Membership.

Benefits vary upon level of membership, and may include: alignment with local media outlets on special community events, digital impressions to our thousands of individual subscribers, free admission and priority access to exhibition openings and other special events, first notice of new Fine Art and Entertainment offerings, discounts on art, classes (for children & adults), lectures and team building workshops, and the opportunity to host parties and events at discounted rates, on historic Monthaven's entire campus.
